NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 18.-Special .-Oscar 1. Fleming, Justice of the Peace of Kempsville, Princess Anne county stands accused of the murder, felonious and with malice aforethought, of Clarence H. Snyder, of Norfolk, Such was the verdict of the coroner's

As he did this Fleming drew a pistol, saying nobedy knows who did that (shot (Larence) but said "if you be-(shot Clarence), but said: "If you be-lieve I did it get out a warrant and have the matter investigated.".

Summers further swore that the man who did the shooting acted deliberately, and that the gun was about on a level when he fired, and not elevated as it would probably have been had the shooter been as Fleming said he was, firing at a hawk. SHOT TWO MEN.

Fleming, it is stated, has within the past year shot and wounded two colored
